

I oppose revising of ownership rules for radio and tv and other media. The conglomerates own enough and have squeezed and will cont to squeeze out competition. I think that the commisions chairman is showing favoritism due to his party affilitaion and the Republican party recieving huge donations for the media megacompanies.
sincerely your Gary Trakas